
First Edition

New titles from HarperCollins and Simon & Schuster

March 2023

New Zealand

Non-fiction

Fear Byron C Clark

HarperCollins NZ

RRP: $39.99

Publishing 15 February

This must-read new book maps New Zealand's alt-right underworld and unearths the roots of the occupation that ended in a violent protest on the grounds of Parliament.

Byron C Clark is one of Aotearoa New Zealand's foremost experts on the far-right and alt-right extremism. He is also a disinformation researcher and commentator. He lives in Christchurch, New Zealand.

Tales of a Vet Nurse Jade Pengelly

HarperCollins NZ

RRP: $39.99

From emergency shifts at a posh London practice to a busy country hospital treating all manner of wildlife - snakes, foxes, hedgehogs - to working with equine-surgeons and teaching the art of care to new generations of vet nurses in New Zealand, this book is about a life devoted to saving our beloved and unconditional friends.

Jade Pengelly is a vet nurse from Christchurch, New Zealand. She has worked in five practices between the UK and New Zealand. She was also teacher of veterinary nursing at Wintec, Waikato, for two years.

Memoir

Non-fiction

A Forager's Life Helen Lehndorf

HarperCollins NZ
RRP: $39.99

Interweaving memoir through descriptions of the plants Helen has foraged, and the practices and recipes she has honed, A Forager's Life tells an intimate story about belonging, marriage and motherhood.

Helen Lehndorf is a life-long forager and Taranaki writer who lives in the Manawatu. She co-founded the Manawatau Urban Foraging group. Her first book, The Comforter, was published by Seraph Press in 2012, and her second book, Write to the Centre, a nonfiction book about the process of keeping a journal, was published by Haunui Press in 2016.

Paris: The Memoir Paris Hilton

Harlequin
RRP: $37.99

Shocking, funny and surprisingly profound, Paris is the deeply personal memoir of the ultimate It Girl and a stunning inside view of a pop culture phenomenon.

In this revealing and thought-provoking book, Paris will separate the creation from the creator, the brand from the ambassador, and show the woman who grew up with incredible privilege, but who was also trapped in a world of unreasonable expectation at a moment when young women were humiliated for sport in a gossip economy on steroids.

General

Non-fiction

Behind the Crown Arthur Edwards

HarperCollins
RRP: $59.99

'For 45 years I've chronicled the Royal Family for the Sun newspaper with my camera. I've witnessed their triumphs and disasters, their laughter and tears.'

Arthur Edwards is a British photographer working for the Sun newspaper, who specialises in pictures of the British Royal Family, covering over 200 royal tours in over 120 countries, seven royal weddings, four funerals and seven births.

Wanderlust Reid Mitenbuler

HarperCollins
RRP: $39.99

The mesmerizing, larger-than-life tale of an eccentric adventurer who traversed some of the greatest frontiers of the twentieth century, from uncharted Arctic wastelands to the underground resistance networks of World War II.

Peter Freuchen's life seemed ripped from the pages of an adventure novel—and provided fodder for many books of his own.

The Patriarchs Angela Saini

4th Estate
RRP: $37.99

Award-winning science journalist Angela Saini goes in search of the true roots of gendered oppression, uncovering a complex history of how male domination became embedded in societies and spread across the globe.

Angela Saini presents science programmes on BBC Radio 4 and the World Service, and her writing has appeared in the Guardian.

General

Non-fiction

Silk

Aarathi Prasad

HarperCollins

RRP: $37.99

In a gorgeous history that spans continents and millennia, Aarathi Prasad weaves together the complex story of the queen of fabrics.

Aarathi Prasad is a writer, broadcaster, and researcher. She is the author of In the Bonesetter's Waiting Room: Travels Through Indian Medicine which was a BBC Radio 4 Book of the Week.

Africana

Lerato Umah-Shaylor

Harlequin

RRP: $49.99

Africana travels the continent showcasing its vibrant and varied cuisines that are rich in flavour, diverse in culture and steeped in tradition.

Lerato Umah-Shaylor is a food writer, presenter and leading voice in African cuisine. She is the founder of Lerato Foods & Naturals. She set up popular supper clubs and cooking classes in London, and across the UK.

In Belinda's Kitchen

Belinda Jeffery

Simon & Schuster

RRP: $59.99

A beautiful book of delicious, fail-safe recipes and delightful stories from Australia's favourite home cook, Belinda Jeffery.

Belinda Jeffery is the bestselling author of A Year of Sundays and Mix & Bake.

General

Non-fiction

One Medicine Dr Matt Morgan

Simon & Schuster
RRP: $38.99

As Dr Matt Morgan, an intensive care consultant, examined a patient who had suffered a cardiac arrest after inhaling some biscuit crumbs, he saw a flock of birds fly past the window. They must inhale objects all the time when flying, how do they survive? he thought to himself. This began an investigation that spanned continents, species and millennia.

We owe animals so much, it's time to focus on examining how they live and what we still have to learn from them. Better shared understanding of how our species coexists with millions of others can lead to untold medical advances, help both humans and animals and improve the world for all creatures.

General

Fiction

The Adventures of
Amina al-Sirafi
Shannon Chakraborty

Voyager

RRP: $35.00

A new trilogy of magic and mayhem, pirates and sorcerers, forbidden artefacts and ancient mysteries, and one woman's quest to seize a final chance at glory...

Shannon Chakraborty is the bestselling author of The City of Brass. She is a speculative fiction writer from Queens.

One Illumined Thread
Sally Colin-James

4th Estate

RRP: $36.99

A beautiful, enthralling and powerful story of three women separated by centuries, yet connected by a thread of longing and a singular creative spirit - for readers of Sarah Winman and Maggie O'Farrell .

One Illumined Thread won the 2020 HNSA Colleen McCullough Residency Award, the 2020 Varuna PIP Fellowship Award, the Byron Bay Writers Festival Mentorship Award, and a placement with the Australian Writers Mentoring program.

A Secret Garden Affair
Erica James

Harlequin

RRP: $32.99

A captivating story that sweeps through sixty years of history, love, and family drama.

Erica James is the author of twenty-three internationally bestselling novels. Her books are loved by readers looking for beautifully drawn relationships, emotionally powerful storylines and evocative settings.

General Fiction

The Porcelain Moon Beverley Naidoo

HarperCollins
RRP: $35.00

A vividly rendered novel set in WWI France about two young women—one Chinese, one French—whose lives intersect with unexpected, potentially dangerous consequences.

Janie Chang has lived in the Philippines, Iran, Thailand, New Zealand and Canada. She writes historical fiction with a personal connection, drawing from family history and ancestral stories.

Fed to Red Birds Rijn Collins

Simon & Schuster
RRP: $37.99

Prepare to be bewitched by Iceland and the book that has enchanted readers for decades – and imprisoned one of them.

Rijn Collins is an award-winning short story writer, published in many journals and anthologies, as well as having numerous audio stories produced

This Could be Everything Eva Rice

HarperCollins
RRP: $19.99

A coming-of-age story with its roots under the pavements of a pre-Richard Curtis-era. It's about what happens when you start looking after something more important than you.

Rice is the author of modern classic The Lost Art of Keeping Secrets. She has toured with bands since her early twenties and has written the music for the 2023 musical, Harriet.

General

Fiction

Apartment 303

Kelli Hawkins

HarperCollins

RRP: $35.00

Rory observes the world from the safety of her third-floor apartment. But she's being watched too and will soon learn that no lock will protect her.

Kelli Hawkins writes reports for a private investigator, as well as working on novels for adults and children.

The Favour
Nicci French

Simon & Schuster

RRP: $37.99

When Liam asks Jude for a favour, she just can't say no. But soon she is contacted by the police, informing her that Liam has been found dead, and suddenly she is caught up in a murder investigation.

Nicci French is the pseudonym for the writing partnership of journalists Nicci Gerrard and Sean French. The couple are married and live in London and Suffolk.

Kids

Picture books

In or Out Stacy Gregg

HarperCollins
RRP: $35.00

Featuring well-known pets and their all-too-familiar characteristics, this fun-filled story is comedically told through the antics of mischievous Cat and increasingly impatient Dog. Can they end the day as friends?

Stacy Gregg began writing fictional novels about horses for children with Mystic and the Midnight Ride (2007), the first in her Pony Club Secrets series.

Trains, Boats and Planes Michelle Robinson & Jez Tuya

Walker Books
RRP: $32.99

A fun and colourful ride and follow up to Red Lorry, Yellow Lorry, this is perfect for vehicle-loving readers.

Michelle Robinson wrote copy and devised websites for some of the world's biggest brands and is the author of several successful picture books including the Sainsbury's Award-winning There's a Lion in my Cornflakes.

Jez is an illustrator based in Wellington. He's been honing his craft and working as an illustrator for many years, and over this time he's worked for many clients in children's book publishing, while occasionally dabbling in design work for animation.

Kid's Fiction

The Monkey who Fell from the Future Ross Welford

HarperCollins

RRP: $19.99

Thomas and Kylie have created the Time Tablet – a device which will allow them to communicate with the future. But when the Time Tablet malfunctions, they are sucked into the year 2425!

From Ross Welford, the bestselling and Costa-shortlisted author of Time Travelling with a Hamster.

Different for Boys Patrick Ness

Walker Books

RRP: $27.99

A poignant and moving LGBTQ+ YA story that explores sexuality and masculinity with a touch of humour. A timely and important story about inclusivity, prejudice and friendship.

From twice Carnegie Medal-winner and bestselling author of the Chaos Walking trilogy, Patrick Ness.

The Cult of Romance Sarah Ayoub

HarperCollins

RRP: $22.99

When your bestie is marrying a guy she barely knows, can you save her from the cult of romance before it's too late?

Sarah Ayoub is a journalist, bestselling author and academic with a PhD in migrant Australian YA literature.

Kids

Non-fiction

Matt Formston: Surfing in the Dark

John Dickson

Simon & Schuster
RRP: $28.99

This is the first book in the Big Visions series published in partnership with Vision Australia that depicts everyday Australian heroes living with blindness or low vision.

Each book features braille alongside the conventional text and is designed to inspire conversations about inclusivity, representation and resilience.

Matt Formston always dreamed of becoming a professional surfer. But by the time he was five years old, he was almost completely blind. Matt never let that stop him.

Now he is a record-holding cycling Paralympian and a world champion surfer.