
First Edition

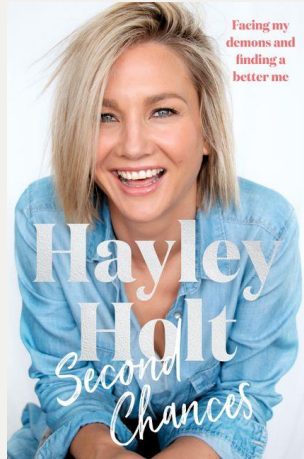

New titles from HarperCollins and Simon & Schuster

April 2023

New Zealand

Non-fiction

Second Chances

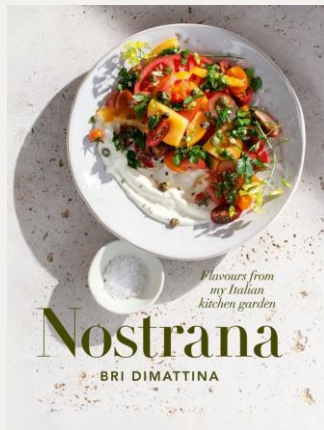

Hayley Holt

HarperCollins NZ

RRP: $39.99

A raw and honest story of alcoholism, recovery and courage in the face of loss.

Hayley Holt has been on our television screens and radio for over 20 years. Her highs and lows have been aired for everyone to see. Now it's time to share her side of the story.

Nostrana

Bri DiMattina

HarperCollins NZ

RRP: $55.00

Delicious Italian-inspired recipes from a New Zealand home garden

Bri DiMattina is a second-generation Italian-Kiwi, a home gardener and trained chef who inherited her love of good food from her chef mother and her Italian nonna. After a career in the food industry, Bri moved to Mangere Bridge with her son and partner. There she began growing a 'food forest' using permaculture principles, finding joy in harvesting and cooking homegrown produce. She is on Instagram as @IAteMyGarden.

General

Non-fiction

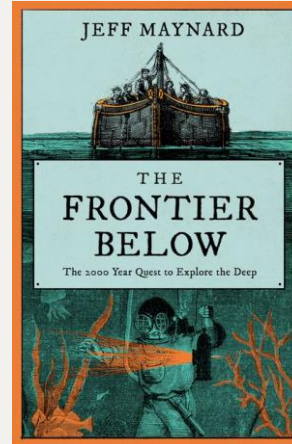

Friendaholic
Elizabeth Day

4th Estate

RRP: $32.99

Friendaholic unpacks the significance and evolution of friendship. From exploring her own personal friendships, to the unique and powerful insights of others across the globe, Elizabeth asks why there isn't yet a language that can express its crucial influence on our world.

Elizabeth Day is the author of four novels and Sunday Times bestselling memoir, How to Fail.

The Frontier Below
Jeff Maynard

HarperCollins

RRP: $39.99

A journey through time and water, to the bottom of the ocean and the future of our planet.

Meticulously researched and drawing extensively on unpublished sources and personal interviews, this book is the untold story of the pioneers who had the right stuff, but were forgotten because they went in the wrong direction.

Untypical
Pete Wharmby

4th Estate

RRP: $34.99

The ground-breaking book on what steps we should all be taking for the autistic people in our lives.

Pete Wharmby lays bare the experience of being 'different', explaining just how exhausting it is to fit in to a world not designed for you. After a late diagnosis, Pete is the perfect interlocutor to explain what we can do for the many autistic people in our schools, workplaces and lives.

General

Fiction

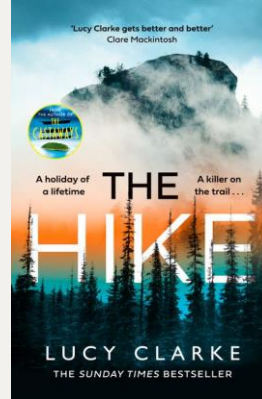

The Dog of the North

Elizabeth McKenzie

4th Estate
RRP: $32.99

This dryly comic novel follows Penny as she sets out in a van to find a way through the curveballs life has thrown at her and in doing so, find a way back to herself.

Elizabeth McKenzie is the author of the novel The Portable Veblen, long listed for the 2016 National Book Award.

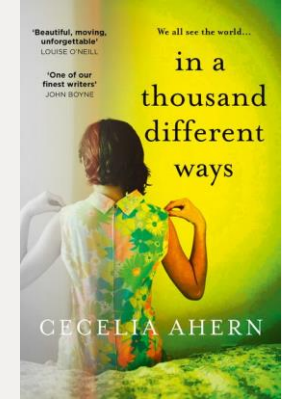

The Hike

Lucy Clarke

HarperCollins
RRP: $32.99

Maggie, Liz, Helena & Joni. Old friends bound by history, adventures, old secrets. And now, bound by murder.

Somewhere out there, someone knows exactly why a woman has died. And in this deep, dark wilderness, there's a killer on the trail . . .
Lucy Clarke is the bestselling author of One of the Girls.

In a Thousand Different Ways

Cecelia Arhern

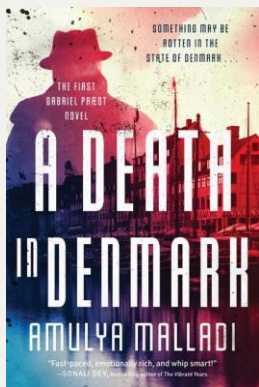

HarperCollins
RRP: $35.00

Finding your way is never a simple journey... Alice sees a thousand different emotions and knows exactly what everyone around her is feeling.

Cecelia Arhern is the bestselling author of P.S. I Love You, which was adapted into a major movie.

General

Fiction

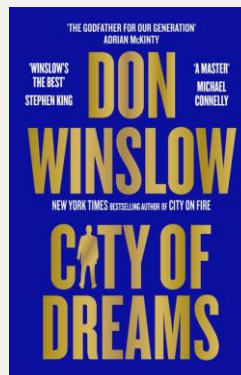

A Death in Denmark Amulya Malladi

HarperCollins
RRP: $35.00

Meet Gabriel Præst, an ex-Copenhagen cop (who dresses with panache), jazz aficionado, and relentless pursuer of truth as he explores Denmark's Nazi-collaborator past and anti-Muslim present.

Amulya Malladi is the bestselling author of eight novels, including The Copenhagen Affair.

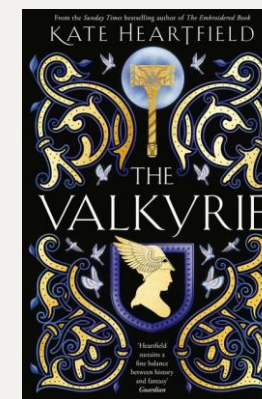

City of Dreams Don Winslow

HarperCollins
RRP: $35.00

The explosive sequel to City on Fire.

Don Winslow is the author of nineteen acclaimed, award-winning, international bestsellers – including the No. 1 international bestseller The Cartel, winner of the Ian Fleming Steel Dagger Award. A former investigator, anti-terrorist trainer, and trial consultant, Winslow lives in Southern California.

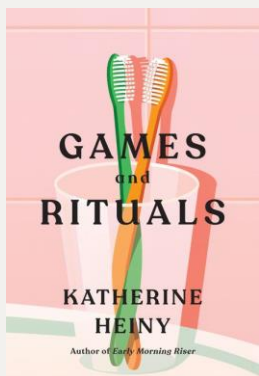

The Valkyrie Kate Heartfield

Voyager
RRP: $35.00

A glorious, lyrical retelling of one of Norse mythology's greatest epics.

Kate Heartfield is the author of The Embroidered Book. Her debut novel won Canada's Aurora Award, and her novellas, stories and games have been shortlisted for the Nebula, Locus, Crawford, Sunburst and Aurora awards.

General Fiction

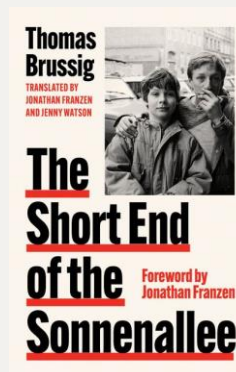

Games and Rituals Katherine Heiny

4th Estate
RRP: $32.99

The beloved author of Early Morning Riser brings us eleven glittering stories of love.

Katherine Heiny's fiction has been published in The New Yorker, Ploughshares, Narrative, Glimmer Train, and many other places.

The Short End of the Sonnenallee Thomas Brussig

4th Estate
RRP: $27.99

Thomas Brussig's classic German satire, translated into English for the first time and introduced by Jonathan Franzen.

Brussig's novel follows the bizarre, grotesque quotidian details of life in the German Democratic Republic. As this new translation shows, the ideas at its heart – freedom, democracy and life's fundamental hilarity – hold great relevance for today.

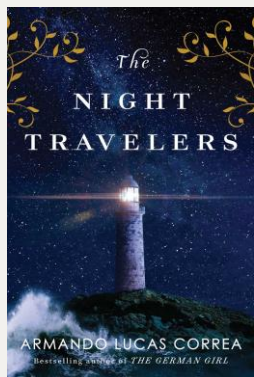

Crushing Genevieve Novak

HarperCollins
RRP: $35.00

Marnie is running late to her own identity crisis. After a decade of twisting herself into different versions of the ideal girlfriend, she's swearing off relationships for good.

Genevieve Novak is a writer from Melbourne. She writes character-led romantic comedies, pop culture columns for The Age, digital content, and stilted author biographies.

General Fiction

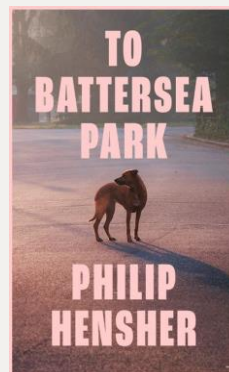

The Night Travelers Armando Lucas Correa

Simon & Schuster
RRP: $37.99

Four generations of women experience love, loss, and hope from the rise of Nazism to the Cuban Revolution and, finally, the fall of the Berlin Wall.

Correa is the author of the international bestseller The German Girl and an award-winning journalist and editor.

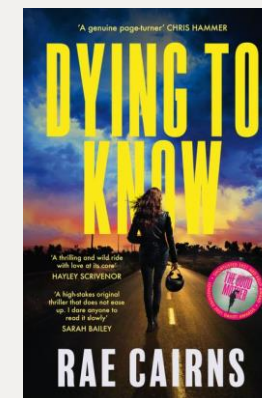

To Battersea Park Philip Hensher

4th Estate
RRP: $32.99

Set in a large crowded city where we are forbidden to approach strangers, this novel is about what we share: humanity, imagination, and the love that emerges from many acts of telling.

Philip Hensher is a columnist for the Independent, arts critic for the Spectator and a Granta Best of Young British novelist.

Dying to Know Rae Cairns

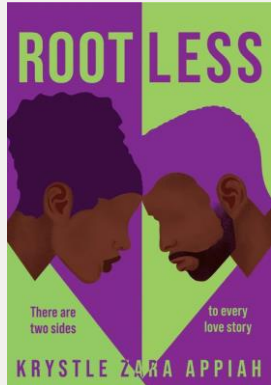

HarperCollins
RRP: $34.99

Twelve years ago Geneva received a phone call that stopped her life in its tracks. Her sister, Amber, was locked in the boot of a moving car and begging Geneva for help. Amber was never heard from again.

Rae Cairns writes crime with heart: thrillers featuring everyday people. Her debut novel The Good Mother was shortlisted for Best Debut Crime Fiction in the 2021 Ned Kelly Awards.

General

Fiction

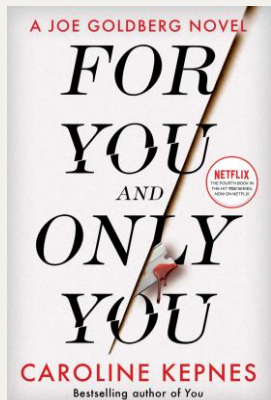

Rootless Krystle Zara Appiah

Blue Door
RRP: $35.00

Sam wants to start a family while Efe wants to be free from children to focus on her dreams. When an unplanned pregnancy forces them to confront their differences, Efe and Sam must discover if what they really want is still each other...

Krystle Zara Appiah is a British-Ghanaian writer, editor and screenwriter based in London. In 2020, she was one of forty writers selected for the London Library's Emerging Writers Programme.

For You and Only You Caroline Kepnes

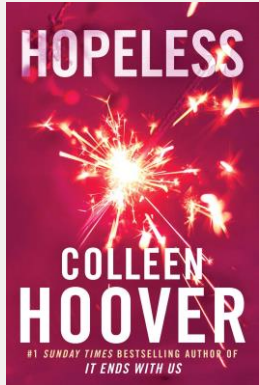

Simon & Schuster
RRP: $37.99

The next novel in the hit You series, which follows Joe Goldberg to the hallowed halls of Harvard University.

Caroline Kepnes is the author of You and Hidden Bodies. Her work has been translated into a multitude of languages and inspired a television series adaptation of You, currently on Netflix.

General

Fiction

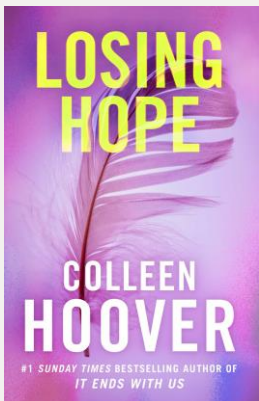

Hopeless Colleen Hoover

Simon & Schuster
RRP: $24.99

The beginning of Sky and Dean's passionate love story – where well-kept secrets threaten to open wounds of a dark past.

Beloved and bestselling author Colleen Hoover returns with the spellbinding story of two young people with devastating pasts who embark on a passionate, intriguing journey to discover the lessons of life, love, trust – and above all, the healing power that only truth can bring.

Losing Hope Colleen Hoover

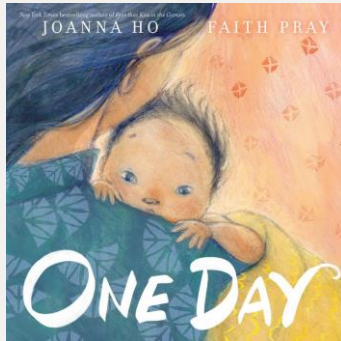

Simon & Schuster
RRP: $24.99

Holder reveals the way in which the events of Sky's youth affected him and his family, leading him to seek his own redemption in the act of saving her.

Colleen Hoover is the #1 New York Times bestselling author of more than twenty-three novels, including It Starts with Us and It Ends with Us

Kids

Picture books

One Day Joanna Ho

HarperCollins

RRP: $29.99

Reading age: 0+

A mother's ode to her baby boy—she shares her hopes and dreams for her son as she envisions him exploring the world.

Joanna Ho is passionate about equity in books and education.

She has been an English teacher, a dean, and a teacher professional development mastermind.

The Little Fear Luke Scriven

HarperCollins

RRP: $29.99

Reading age: 3+

A brilliant picture book debut on facing your fears, overcoming anxiety and being just a little bit brave, perfect for little worriers.

Working traditionally, Luke uses a mix of watercolour and gouache to create pictures. His clients include ITV, Tatler UK, Light & Motion, The Betterment Mayfair, Project Literacy and ASDA.

Junior

Fiction

Robodog

David Walliams

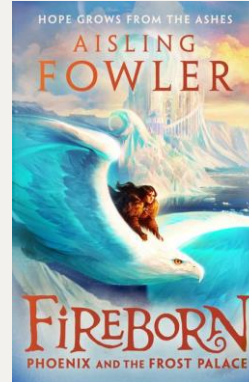

HarperCollins

RRP: $22.99

Reading age: 8+

The newest recruit at the Police Dog School, and supercharged for adventure. But can Robodog stop the most feared duo in Bedlam, and their evil plans to ruin the city?

David Walliams has revolutionised reading for children and become one of the most influential children's writers today.

Fireborn: Phoenix and the Frost Palace

Aisling Fowler

HarperCollins

RRP: $19.99

Reading age: 8+

The next action-packed Fireborn adventure. Twelve has become a hunter and chosen a new name to reflect her elemental power: Phoenix.

After earning a BSc in Biology and working as a support worker and then a nurse, the idea for Fireborn came to Aisling as she moved back and forth between London and the US.

Nic Blake and the Remarkables

Angie Thomas

Walker Books

RRP: $19.99

Reading age: 9+

It's not easy being a Remarkable in the Unremarkable world.

Internationally bestselling superstar author Angie Thomas makes her middle grade debut with the launch of a new contemporary fantasy trilogy inspired by African American history and folklore.

Junior

Fiction

Hell Breaks Loose

Derek Landy

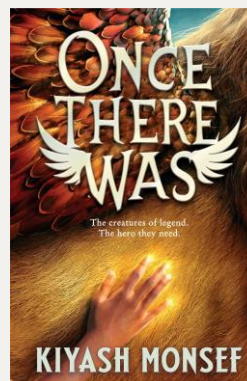

HarperCollins

RRP: $22.99

Reading age: 8+

Discover the world of Skulduggery Pleasant in this prequel to the bestselling series.

Return to the world of Skulduggery Pleasant in a short novel set hundreds of years before Valkyrie Cain is even born.

Once There Was

Kiyash Monsef

Simon & Schuster

RRP: $19.99

Reading age: 9+

Discover a world of extraordinary beasts and unexpected heroes in the dazzling debut from Kiyash Monsef.

Kiyash Monsef is an Emmy Award–nominated producer and director; a writer of short stories, videos, comic books, and games.

Deadlands: Hunted

Skye Melki-Wegner

Walker Books

RRP: $18.99

Reading age: 9+

Jurassic Park – from the dinosaurs' point of view!

Skye Melki-Wegner is the fantasy author of the Chasing the Valley series and The Hush.

Young Adult

Fiction

Project Nought Chelsey Furedi

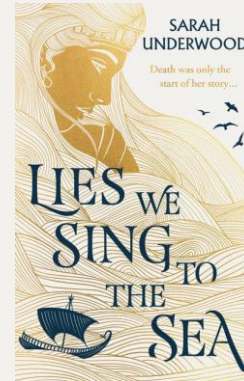

HarperCollins

RRP: $29.99

Reading age: 13+

This debut graphic novel is a fast-paced time travel adventure with a hint of romance that has garnered 1.5 million views as a Tapas webcomic.

Chelsey Furedi is a New Zealand based comic artist and illustrator. She started her career in comics during university with her online hit, Rock and Riot.

Lies We Sing to the Sea Sarah Underwood

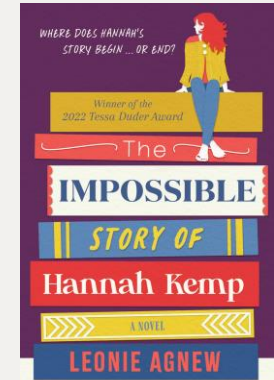

Farshore Fiction

RRP: $22.99

Reading age: 14+

A reclamation of a story from thousands of years ago, Lies We Sing to the Sea is about love and fate, grief and sacrifice, and, ultimately, the power we must find within.

Lies We Sing to the Sea is Sarah Underwood's debut novel.

The Impossible Story of Hannah Kemp Leonie Agnew

Walker Books

RRP: $22.99

Reading age: 12+

The winner of the 2022 Tessa Duder Award: a powerful exploration of guilt, forgiveness, choice and personal responsibility.

Leonie Agnew is an award-winning children's author, a former advertising copywriter, and currently moonlighting as a primary school teacher.